At this time, Councilman Jones commended Public Works Director Mark Acreman and his department for their proactive work in preparation of the potential rain event forecasted for the City.

Councilman Doughty addressed Assistant Public Works Director, Noel Hand and asked if the City was selling the items picked up along the beach in conjunction with the “Leave Only Footprints” initiative. Mr. Hand responded, the City of Gulf Shores does not sell items picked up; in fact the items of significant value such as someone’s wallet, radios, purses, nice coolers are turned into the head lifeguard station so people may come back and claim them, the other items are recycled if possible or discarded.

8. Adjourn...
