

BIOGRAPHY ON JASON DYKEN

Councilman Jason Dyken is a medical doctor, a financial planner and the newest member of the Gulf Shores City Council. Elected in 2008 to a four year term, Councilman Dyken serves as a member of the Education Committee, Parks and Recreation Committee, Gulf Coast Healthcare Authority and Chairman of the Finance/Personnel Committee.

Councilman Dyken holds a Masters of Business Administration from the University of Alabama at Birmingham, a medical doctor degree from University of South Alabama and a Bachelors of Sciences in Chemistry degree from Furman University.

Councilman Dyken is a past member of the City of Gulf Shores Zoning Board of Adjustments. He also volunteers his services with the South Baldwin Children's Foundation, South Baldwin Health Foundation and is an active coach in City recreational baseball and basketball programs.

Councilman Dyken is retired from his private medical practice and presently owns Dyken Wealth Strategies, a financial planning firm. He has been married to Orthodontist, Dr. Renee Dyken, for 15 years. They have four children and enjoy all the wonderful amenities that the Alabama Gulf Coast has to offer including swimming, boating, fishing and other sports.

Back to City of Gulf Shores Home Page | Back to City Council Page