No report at this time. Opened the floor for public comment.

At this time, several Craft Farm North residents voiced their concerns regarding the site work being done behind their homes for the new Village at Craft Farms development. Their concerns included the removal of trees, privacy issues and drainage. Mayor Robert Craft along with Planning and Zoning Director Andy Bauer and Director of Public Works Mark Acreman addressed these concerns and have already been in contact with the developer to begin working with him to help alleviate some of these concerns. Residents will be updated to any changes.

Gulf Shores City School Board of Education President Kevin Corcoran announced a possible venue change to City Hall for the upcoming Work Session Meeting on Thursday, March 7th. Notice will be posted as soon as possible.

10. Adjourn.
