Gulf Shores City Schools Superintendent Dr. Matt Akin announced the eight classroom addition had passed its final inspection this morning, so the teachers and students were able to move into their new classrooms. Dr. Akin thanked Public Works Director Noel Hand, Management Analyst Amy McKenzie, and the rest of the Public Works Department for all their hard work in making it happen. Further announcing, this Thursday would be the first football game at 7:00 p.m. and the first volleyball starting at 5:00, both are home games.

Local Resident Kristen Swiger announced Kim Sung Gov, an employee of the local post office, sadly passed away from a car accident Friday, August 18th. Ms. Swiger stated he could put a smile on anyone's face, was so sweet, just a great human. She gave a brief heartfelt testimony of her and Mr. Gov's interaction the first time he saw her after her own car accident and asked if you happen to go into the post office in the next several days to show the staff extra kindness as they were going through a hard time. Councilman Joe Garris agreed, he had never been in the post office when Mr. Gov wasn't smiling, that he had just seen him Friday afternoon, to please remember him and his family at this time.
