Jack Edwards National Airport Site of 2018 AOPA Fly-In Event on October 26-27

Gulf Shores, Ala – October 25, 2018 – The Gulf Shores Airport Authority and State of Alabama Bureau of Aeronautics is hosting the 2018 Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association (AOPA) Regional Fly-In this Friday and Saturday, October 26-27, at the Jack Edwards National Airport.

The event will highlight static displays of military and civilian aircraft, offer biplane and helicopter rides and feature over 70 exhibitors along with seminars and an AOPA Town Hall meeting with AOPA President Mark Baker. A full slate of speakers are scheduled for the main stage on Saturday, including Astronaut Ken Cameron.

All events other than the Barnstormer's Party on Friday evening at 6 p.m. and the Pancake Breakfast on Saturday morning at 8 a.m. are FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.

The Aircraft and Pilots Association is the largest aviation organization in the world. Additional information can be found at www.gulfshoresal.gov/aopaflyin.
