Auburn University to hold ribbon-cutting ceremony for new Gulf Shores educational complex

Gulf Shores, Ala – A ribbon-cutting ceremony will be held for the new Auburn University Educational Complex in Gulf Shores on Tuesday, Oct. 30 – a move that will strengthen the educational and economic development resources for the citizens of South Alabama and the Gulf Coast.

The 24,000-square-foot complex will offer veterinary care on a referral basis, aviation instruction, research administration and cooperative extension support for that region, providing the community access to Auburn’s pioneering research and innovative faculty. The centerpiece of the complex will be the Auburn Veterinary Specialists – Gulf Shores veterinary referral center, which is slated for operation later this year.

What: Ribbon-cutting ceremony for the Auburn University Educational Complex

Where: Auburn University Educational Complex, 21541 Coastal Gateway Boulevard, Gulf Shores, AL 36542.

The complex is located in Gulf Shores on the corner of Beach Express and Coastal Gateway Boulevard (County Road 8), adjacent to the planned Coastal Alabama Center for Education Excellence.

When: Ribbon-cutting ceremony will start at 1 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 30, and will last approximately 30 minutes, to be followed by a walking tour of the complex.

Who: Speaking at the day’s ceremony will be:

- Auburn University President Steven Leath
- Gulf Shores Mayor Robert Craft
- Auburn University Board of Trustees District 1 member B.T. Roberts
